

60 ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF SKÅL INTERNATIONAL NORTHERN IRELAND

Skål International Northern Ireland celebrated the 60th anniversary of its foundation during a special event held in Belfast on Friday 20 June 2014 in the presence of International President Karine Coulanges.

During the lunch the new members Mark Langham, Ann Donaghy, Jackie Kelly and Julie Andrews were presented with a certificate and pin. The 60th Anniversary Certificate was presented to the Club

President, Kathleen Lavery, by International President Karine Coulanges who also took the occasion to present the Order of Skål Merit to John Bright, Membre d'Honneur.

International President Karine visited Titanic Belfast, the largest dedicated tourist attraction of its sort in the world, followed by a day out on the Causeway Coast. After a guided tour of the Giant's Causeway Visitor Centre, winner of Top Visitor Attraction SDIT Awards 2013, she stopped off at the world's oldest distillery Old Bushmills, founded in 1608, for a private tour and VIP tasting arranged by Skålleague Niall Mehaffey. New member Sean Mc Laughlin, General Manager of The Causeway Hotel, was also presented with his certificate and pin.

VIEW MORE PHOTOS