

International President Karine Coulanges spent two full days at the General Secretariat in Torremolinos on 30 June and 1 July 2014. She worked with each member of the team on matters relating to their respective attributions and duties. She was pleased to see that the office is running efficiently and that the staff is very devoted and reliable.

