Skål International Lausanne Visibility at Travel Trade Workshop

The TTW (Travel Trade Workshop) took place in Lausanne last September and for the 43th time, it brought together tourism professionals from the French speaking part of Switzerland.

For the third time in a row, Skål International Lausanne organised a Lounge corner where our members, as well as members from other associations could meet, exchange and share a moment of friendship. This corner was managed by our youth section, which also among a welcome generational exchange.

During this show we were also able to approach several people interested in joining our Skål family. For this reason Skål International Lausanne would like to thank the Membership Recruitment Fund for the financial help which helped us to set up this event.
