Skål International Madrid

Francisco Rivero, awarded by Skål International Andorra

For his contribution to tourism in Andorra,

Juan Francisco Rivero Domínguez, President of Skål International Madrid, was one of the four winners of the XX Tourism Awards granted by Skål International Andorra to individuals and companies from Andorra and abroad, in recognition of their work in favour of tourism in the Principality, on the occasion of World Tourism Day. The Clubs of Madrid and Andorra twinned during the last national congress of Skål Spain, held in Andorra la Vella this year, a fact that helped this recognition.

The other 2018 winners, chosen by the members of Skål International Andorra, were "Andorra Turisme", the Principality's tourism promotion authority, and the Catalan tour operator "Esquiades.com", based in Reus, Tarragona. The fourth prize winner was catering professional, Andorran Denis Garcia Abella, now retired, who founded the famous restaurant "Don Denis" in 1973.

These awards have been held in Andorra since 1999. From the creation of the Club in 1982 to 1999, Andorran members celebrated the event in La Pergola in Barcelona.

The gala was held on 27 September 27, World Tourism Day, at the Hotel Roc Blanc, Escaldes-Engordany, with the attendance of personalities from the country's tourist, political and social sectors.
