Skål International Wien

President Heinz G. Risska and General Secretary Sylvia Liebisch proudly congratulate “La Diva” Tamara Trojani to her Skål membership!

Skål member Tamara Trojani, a famous opera and cabaret singer, has always combined music with culinary enjoyment, and so she took over, parallel to her artistic career her, mother's restaurant, one of the best and most popular Viennese run restaurants, the Schönbrunner Stöckl located at Meidlinger Tor of the Schönbrunn Palace.

The traditional restaurant harkens back to a long and eventful past. Originally, the building that now houses the restaurant was used for the imperial stables, but at the turn of the century, it was replaced with a tavern. Today the restaurant, with its lovingly designed premises, is known for the old culinary traditions-Viennese, Bohemian, and Monarchical kitchen.

Recently, together with the renowned conductor, composer and pianist Konstantin Schenk Skålleague Tamara founded the “Dinnertheater Schönbrunn” offering an authentic Viennese Show & Dinner. The dinner theatre is also located in the same premises as the restaurant.

The varied programs, high-caliber guests, exquisite gourmet menus, are the keys to the success of these two Viennese performing hosts – Tamara and Konstantin!

Already several Skål members had the pleasure to attend these shows!
