

Skål International Istanbul welcomed newly-elected Skål International President Salih Cene at their first luncheon after the World Congress in Mexico City

President Salih Cene was welcomed by the Istanbul Club members with great excitement and enthusiasm at the luncheon organised at the brand new CVK Park Bosphorus Hotel in Istanbul. Mr. President addressed the Istanbul Club members at the Club's November Luncheon and said that Skål International Turkey has been home to two Skål International Presidents in the last five years. Mr. President also said that his term will be one to promote friendship among members and develop better member relations.

Feza Solaklar, President Skål International Istanbul, addressing the participants.

Hulya Aslantas, Skål International President 2009 with International President Salih Cene.