

The Skål International stand at World Travel Market London 2014 was once again efficiently manned by our Skålleagues from London who welcomed many visitors and informed potential members about our organisation.

